

TEXAS A&M INTERNATIONAL UNIVERSITY

Office of Human Resources

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION UNDER THE U.S. DEPT. OF LABOR'S PERMANENT LABOR CERTIFICATION PROGRAM

POSITION TITLE: Assistant Professor of Transportation and International Logistics

DUTIES: Texas A&M International University (TAMIU), a member of the Texas A&M University System, welcomes applicants for a/an Assistant Professor of Transportation and International Logistics to begin Fall 2025.

TAMIU is a Hispanic Serving Institution with over 8,000 students located in Laredo, Texas, a vibrant and bicultural city with a population of about 250,000. The university advances knowledge through research and discovery, teaching and learning, community engagement and public service, and with an intentional focus on student success and research excellence. For more information, please visit <https://www.tamtu.edu/>

This is a tenure-track (9-month) position with reduced teaching load the first years of hire to allow time for research activities. Primary duties will include teaching courses, conducting research (publishing in discipline specific peer-reviewed journals) and providing service to the college and university. Duties also include service on departmental, university, and professional committees as well as meeting university requirements supporting AACSB accreditation. This position requires face-to-face interactions through a regular schedule of attendance on campus and in the workplace.

The A.R. Sanchez, Jr. School of Business is AACSB-accredited, offers a PhD program in International Business Administration, and is the academic home of The International Trade Journal, recently accepted into the Emerging Sources Citation Index.

REQUIREMENTS: The successful candidate must hold a PhD/DBA in Business or a closely related field and have at least 18 hours of graduate coursework in Transportation or International Logistics. ABDs can also be considered, but they must have earned a doctorate before the appointment. We encourage candidates with a strong teaching and research background in logistics and trade and the ability to teach courses that complement and strengthen our academic programs and community partnerships. We offer competitive salaries and a benefits package including health insurance, retirement benefits, and life insurance. Additional pay is available for summer teaching. Financial support for professional development opportunities, such as attending academic conferences, is also provided. Moving expenses are covered in whole or in part by the university.

SALARY/OVERTIME: $125,000.01/year

HOURS: 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
